PURPOSE

We are committed to providing a safe and equitable workplace for all staff and educators. Bullying, discrimination, and harassment will not be tolerated under any circumstances. As part of this commitment we aim to prevent workplace bullying by adhering to the Early Childhood Code of Ethics, Fair Work requirements, and Montessori’s philosophy, ensuring a safe workplace for all staff and Educators employed at the Service.

SCOPE

This policy applies to staff, management, and educators of the Service.

IMPLEMENTATION

Everyone has a right not be bullied or harassed at work. Workplace bullying occurs when a person or group of people repeatedly behave unreasonably towards a worker or a group of workers, creating a risk to health, safety and wellbeing. Bullying may involve any of the following types of behaviour:

- Aggressive or intimidating conduct,
- Making belittling or humiliating comments,
- Spreading malicious rumours,
- Teasing, practical jokes or initiation of, or participation in 'initiation ceremonies',
- Exclusion from work-related events,
- Unreasonable work expectations,
- Displaying offensive material,
- Pressure to behave in an inappropriate manner.

Bullying does not include management action carried out in a reasonable manner.

Discrimination occurs when someone is treated less favourably than others because of a particular characteristic (such as age, disability or gender), or belong to a particular group within the population (due to, for example, religion, culture, race or sexual orientation).

Harassment involves unwelcome behaviour that intimidates, offends or humiliates a person because of particular characteristics as listed above.

There are a number of anti-discrimination, equal employment opportunities, workplace relations, and human rights laws which make it illegal to discriminate or harass a person in the workplace.

Our Service philosophy, code of conduct and early childhood code of ethics will guide educator behaviours and interactions and adhere to best practice by providing a vision and a purposeful and meaningful direction to ensure a safe working environment for all staff.
